"It has been a common remark during the last six nonths that securities were 10 per cent higher than they should be. The Chicago fire has operated to produce contraction, leading to a depression of values. All the moneyed interest of the country is admonished to make everything safe, and bankers and banks in the Western States who have balances in the Atlantic cities draw at least a portion of their balances in currency to be strong at home. Drafts which are made on any of the cities cities drawing on New-York, so that this city is forced to stand the entire load. To meet this demand for funds they have to call in loans on collateral securities and curtail their discount lines. The calling in of loans and curtailment of discounts is the cause of the present depreciation and excitement. The Chicago fire comes in as an aggravating element, and precipitates the climax by throwing at least $50,000,000 of securities upon the market, wiping out for the time another $50,000,000 of bills receivable, ledger balances, &c., and still another

FIRST MORTGAGE is $50,000,000 of property actually destroyed. The trouble in Wall-st, has the same origin. Values must suffer a depreciation of fully 25 per cent upon all the property of the entire country. This is the only adjusting element, and, to bring this to bear, it becomes necessary to go through a species of what may be called a revulsjon. We have been suffering the vexations of a panie for the last three days, and we must soon meet the revulsion. Prices of property must be cut down. It is always a pleasant thing to mark up property, but it is not so agreeable to cut prices down. Those who have nothing but a margin to cut down must go to the wall.

"There is, in my opinion, but one power which can save the country from a general upheaval, and that is the power of the Secretary of the Freesury to take in $45,000,000 of Government bonds by issuing $50,000,000 of greenbacks. The power to issue this $50,000,000 is provided in the statutes passed under Secretary Chase's administration. It is doubtful, however, whether the present Secretary will feel at liberty to avail himself of a statute which has become measurably extinct.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 14.—In the Protestant Episcopal Convention this morning, the Rev. Dr. Haight, of New-Jersey, said the Committee on Canons were ready to report on the subject of a change of Canon 20, fittle 1, of the use of the book of Common Frayer. He asked the undivided attention of the House, as the report proposed alterations of a very radical character. The Rev. Dr. Paddock then read the report, detailing the proposed changes of omission and addition, and concluding with a recommendation of the following resolution:

Resolved the House of Bishops concurring, that Causon 200 Title 1, sentingled "Of the Use of the Book of Common Prayer." Be amended to the standard of the Common Prayer, as the same is or may be established by the authority of the ster shall, on all occasions of public worship, use the Book of Common Prayer, as the same is or may be established by the authority of the General Convention of this Church, and this rule shall be understood to prohibit all additions to and omissions from the prescribed order of said book, except in the cases prescribed by section 14 of Canon 13, of Title 1; provided, that on other occasions than on Sundays and the morning of those week days for which a special service is ordered, and at all times in mission stations and other places than parab charaches where the personation other services may be used, compiled only from the Book of Common Prayer.
